Gorge Fades in Stretch

Vancouver Caps Reach Cup Finals

By GARTH WILTON

For 45 minutes yesterday, Gorge Hotel looked like a good bet to end the mainland's domination of Province Cup competition.

But after their impressive first-half display, Gorge had little to offer in the final 45 minutes and Vancouver Capilanos coasted to a 3-1 victory in a Province Cup semi-final match at Royal Athletic Park.

Playing with a strong wind at their backs, Capilanos were lucky to leave the field with a 2-1 lead at the intermission. Only a goaltending miscue by Archie McMillan of Gorge Hotel enabled the visitors to take a one-goal lead into the dressing room.

McMillan sprawled on a relatively easy ground shot by Vancouver's Art Bennett and then let the ball roll under him into the goal midway through the first half to give Capilanos a 2-0 lead.

Neil McKeachnie, Capilanos classy centre forward, had given Vancouver a 1-0 lead early in the half when he converted Stu Crossan's corner kick, giving McMillan no chance.

McKeachnie had McMillan beaten seconds after scoring his first goal but blasted a low drive off the goal post.

Capilanos, who were faster and showed a good passing attack, pressed continually in the first half but fine work by McMillan and fullbacks Bill Hope and Bill Bamford held them to two goals.

CAME BACK

Gorge came back strongly late in the first half with veteran Bill Abbott missing two golden scoring opportunities before he scored the prettiest goal of the game to cut Vancouver's lead to one goal.

Bob Mars and Ab Travis set the play up from the left side and Abbott took the ball in full stride, nudged it ahead and then drove a short shot past Fred Briscoe in Capilanos goal.

McMillan, making amends for the one soft goal Capilanos scored, made three great saves in the final minute of the half.

GORGE FADES

In the second half, Gorge faded badly, even though they had the wind going their way. Capilanos, showing fancy footwork and using their superior speed to good advantage, controlled the ball most of the time.

McKeachnie got his second goal late in the half, converting a pass from Normie McLeod. That killed Gorge's hopes and neither team threatened seriously again.

Oxo Comes First In Grand National

AINTREE, England (AP)—Oxo, an English jumper, won a furious Grand National Steeplechase Saturday in which only four of 34 starters finished.

The eight-year-old gelding, owned by English farmer John E. Bigg, finished 1½ lengths in front of Wyndburgh, with Mr. What, last year's winner and the 6-to-1 betting favorite, eight lengths back in third place.

Tiberetta, who finished second a year ago, came in fourth. All the others either fell or pulled up in the spectacular but dangerous scramble over the 30 fences on the four-mile, 856-yard course.

Oxo was timed in 9.37.2, well off the record of 9.20 set in 1934 by Golden Miller.

HEAVY IMPOST

Mr. What, owned by David Jones Coughlan, may have had an excuse. He won by 30 lengths a year ago under only 140 pounds but packed 163 this time. That was the second-high weight. Kerstin, who carried 168 pounds, fell. Oxo carried 153 pounds.

There were two late withdrawals from the race, which attracted a crowd estimated at 120,000 to this great race course near Liverpool. The horses scratched were Pippykin and Armorial.

Millions wager on the National, a race on which the first Irish Hospital sweepstakes of the year is based.

NOTORIOUS HAZARD

Kerstin went down at the notorious Becher's Brook, which also claimed 11 others on either the first or second circuits of the course. Becher's is a four-foot 10-inch jump, with a water hazard on the far side.

After the race about a dozen jockeys were treated for minor injuries and one horse, Henry Purcell, had to be destroyed.

Mr. What got away last and Surprise Packet led for more than half the race. It was at Becher's Brook the second time around where Surpise Packet went down. That was where Oxo came into contention, duelling with Wyndburgh and Tiberetta.

Vertex Wins Gulfstream

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Vertex won a brilliant stretch duel with Amerigo Saturday in the $121,800 Gulfstream Park Handicap after heavily-favored Bardstown was scratched from the race.

Vertex, 3-2 favorite under 125 pounds, ran the mile and a quarter in 2.01 3-5 in a pouring rain and won by a neck. Air Pilot was another neck away in third place and Nouredding finished fourth.

A Calumet Farm trainer Jimmy Jones scratched Bardstown, high-weighted at 127 pounds and 6-5 favorite, only 40 minutes before post time because of the rain.

West Indies Tourists Dismiss Pakistan

PESHAWAR, Pakistan (Reuters)—The West Indies touring cricket team dismissed the president's XI for 253 on the first day of a three-day match Friday.

Waqar Hassan, the home captain, was top scorer with a 77, which included 11 boundaries.

Gump Shows Form

Toronto Still 'Alive'; Red Wings Through

Toronto Maple Leafs, carrying their brilliant comeback battle to the final day of the National Hockey League season, whipped the Chicago Black Hawks, 5-1, last night for their fourth straight victory.

In other NHL action, Boston Bruins edged the Montreal Canadiens, 4-3, and the New York Rangers stayed one point in front of the Leafs with a 5-2 victory over the Detroit Red Wings, thereby eliminating the Wings.

A Toronto victory and New York defeat tonight would enable the Leafs to climax their comeback with a playoff berth. In fact, a Toronto victory and a New York tie, which would tie the teams for fourth place, would give the Leafs the playoff spot on the basis of having won more games—27 to New York's 26.

If New York wins tonight, however, it is all over until next season so far as the Leafs are concerned.

Left winger Frank Mahovlich scored his 21st and 22nd goals of the season to spark the Leafs to their big win before 14,501 hometown fans.

HALL BRILLIANT

Bob Pulford, Ron Stewart and Gerry Ehman also beat Chicago goaltender Glenn Hall whose brilliant puck-blocking kept the Hawks in the game for two periods.

For Chicago, Ed Litzenberger beat Johnny Bower, who made more than a few great saves while handling 30 Chicago shots.

Referee Eddie Powers called 36 minutes in penalties—18 to each club.

New York's Victory over Detroit brought a proud era to an inglorious end for the Red Wings. It marked the first time they have missed the playoffs in 21 years, the longest such streak in NHL history. It is also the first time Detroit has finished last since the original Detroit team began play 33 years ago.

SCORES TWICE

Andy Hebenton and Camile Henry each scored twice as the Rangers broke a five-game losing streak that has seen them skid to within a single point of the fast-climbing Maple Leafs. Larry Popein scored the fifth Ranger goal.

For the Red Wings, Gordie Howe, who scored his 32nd goal of the season, and Marcel Pronovost were the marksmen.

At Montreal, in a game that meant nothing, Vic Stasiuk scored three times—twice in the final two minutes—to lead the Bruins to victory over the Canadiens.

Bronco Horvath, who set up both Stasiuk's last two goals, scored the other Boston goal.

Dickie Moore, Henri Richard and Claude Provost scored for the Canadiens, who had Charlie Hodge in goal replacing Jacques Plante.

More's goal, his 40th of the season, ran his league-leading point total to 94. Teammate Jean Beliveau picked up one assist to move into a tie with Andy Bathgate of New York for second place. Each has 88 points.

Rightwinger Mike Lill scored three goals to help Wolverhampton down West Bromwich Albion 5-2 at home Saturday and remain on top of the First Division.

Manchester stayed one point behind, defeating Leeds United 4-0 in another home win paced by a three-goal splurge by Dennis Vollet.

Arsenal clung to third place despite a 1-0 defeat at Newcastle.

Football Association Cup finalists Luton Town and Nottingham Forest lost. Luton was defeated 3-1 by Aston Villa and Nottingham bowed at home to Burnley 2-1.

The biggest upset of the day was Second-Division leader Sheffield Wednesday's 1-0 loss at home to Rotherham, the division's collar club.

Gomez, Roberts Team To Throttle Pirates

Ruben Gomez, Philadelphia's newest starting pitcher, and Robin Roberts, the veteran whiz kid, combined for an eight-hitter Saturday as the Phils defeated Pittsburgh 5-1 at Fort Myers. It was the first day in a week that all Florida exhibition games went off on schedule.

Washington defeated Kansas City 5-1 at West Palm Beach; St. Louis turned back Washington 7-5 at St. Petersburg; Detroit beat Milwaukee 6-2 at Lakeland, and Los Angeles defeated Cincinnati 3-2 at Tampa.

The Dodgers also beat the Reds in Havana 4-3, where both clubs had sent squads to beat the rainy mainland weather that had hit the training camps for five straight days.

In Arizona, the Chicago Cubs beat the Boston Red Sox 9-8 in 10 innings at Mesa, and Cleveland stopped San Francisco 7-5 at Tucson.

Harry Anderson backed the Gomez-Roberts pitching with a two-run homer as the Phils scored three times in the first inning off Ronnie Kline.

THREE HITS

Southpaw Billy Hoeft blanked the Braves over the first four innings on two singles, and Harvey Kuenn had three hits in four at-bats for the Tigers.

Joe Cunningham, getting a full-time shot at the St. Louis first base job, batted in four runs for the Cards. His bases-loaded triple in the seventh off Chicago's Dick Donovan was the clincher.

A two-run homer by Norm Zauchin in the fifth was enough for the Senators as rookie Jack Kralich and Bill Fischer limited the A's to seven hits.

The Dodgers won their Florida game over the Reds when rookie Frank Howard homered in the eighth for all three runs. The Reds had led 2-0 from the first on a pair of unearned runs.

The Dodgers also won the Havana game in the eighth, but on three errors by the Reds rather than batting power.
